ECURE A HOME!!

THE RIVERSIDE

MESTEAD ASSOCIATION!

EAST PORTLAND OREGON

NOW PREPARED TO RECEIVE SUBSCRIPTIONS ... Shares ... pplication f ONE HUNDRED SHARES was made ... the books were opened and a large number ... res have been taken

The following extracts from the Oregonian and Bulletin will convey a good idea of the plan and workings of ... Association the location of the land etc etc

RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION.

This association of whose organization we gave ... account a few days since is now ready to do ... of shares As this is with one exception, (the ... rtland Homestead Association) the pioneer or ... nisation of that kind in this city, it may be ... ll enough to state what are its purposes, and ... manner in which it is proposed to conduct its ... rations. The purposes of these Homestead ... sociations are not at all speculative in the ... ary sense of the word They are dependent ... the profits of their investment upon the ... advance in the value of their lands, conse ... at upon the co-operation of many individuals ... shareholders—and the advance on values of all ... rrounding lands by reason of the expansion of ... pulation and demand for room outside of, but ... ll near, the city The Riverside Homestead ... sociation has a fraction over one hundred and ... enty acres of land situated just south of ... ooklyn on the east side of the river the ... boundary line being about one mile from the ... ry landing at East Portland The tract lies ... one strip along the Willamette river half a mile ... length, and another strip along the Oregon and ... lifornia railroad half a mile in length the two ... rips being connected near the middle by the ... rs of blocks (with a street between them,) the ... hole forming a figure not unlike the letter H ... is divided into 4 blocks 200 feet square (with ... reets running at right angles) and 80 fractional ... lots, along the river front The shares number ... 600, worth $60 per share It will be seen that ... share thus represents nearly a lot with an undi ... ded interest in the 80 fractional lots The 80 frac ... onal shares are to be sold off at the proper ... the benefit of the Association shareholders ... ming in for the proceeds in proportion to the ... mber of shares held When all shares ... taken and the Association shall ... me to do it the choice of lots and blocks ... ll be put up at auction to the highest ... dder the proceeds of such sales after deducting ... e original price of shares or lots to be divided ... ually among the whole number of shares ... us, if a person wants a particular lot or block ... d is willing to pay $100 or $800 premium ... less as the case may be) he pays it and takes ... e lot or block as his individual property, ... emium being divided among the whole ... shareholders It will be seen therefore ... erything is co-operative and all interests ... No man can make a dollar out of it ... t also making a dollar for every other ... areholder There is no chance for loss ... e property by some chance should ... y below the first actual cost Whether ... able to happen in the case of this part ... act of land must be judged by each for himself ... t considering the steady and unprecedented ... rease in real estate in this city and neighbor ... ood, and at East Portland and vicinity for the ... st year or two it seems hardly possible ... lues to go back

In the Riverside Association all property ... ms seem to have been taken to guard against ... onopolies of shares No person is allowed ... y more than the number of shares repre ... ree blocks, or twenty four lots and votes ... rmining the operations of the Association ... stricted in the same manner The buyers ... ares may pay down $60 per share, which ... empt them from all assessments or they ... ay $15 quarterly with an assessment of $3 ... are, payable with the first installment, ... able in this latter case to another (and only ... ther) assessment of $3 per share. Upon ... ayment of the shares in full with the ... eabove, the holder is entitled to his cert ... d his proportion of all the profits ... No officer of the Association ... ay pay for services except the Secretary ... as $25 per month so it will be seen that ... xpenses must be light.

That part of the tract lying along the river ... high plateau nearly level about 60 to 90 ... ove the water There is no part of the ... w of blocks but commands a splendid view ... ortland and the river for miles up and down ... That part of the tract lying along the ... ailroad is, every foot of it, of the richest ... il and adapted to gardening purposes A beau ... ful little stream of pure water runs through ... most the entire length of this wing of the ... fording the means of irrigation and power ... ent to supply pure water to every part of ... hole tract There is not a waste lot or fraction ... t in the entire tract Under all these adva ... ges, it would seem impossible that there should ... any chance of loss to shareholders Within ... ar each shareholder if he choose may ... erfect title to as many lots as his shares ... present or he may continue his interest, ... ded with the Association while the organiza ... on may exist —Oregonian.

THE RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION.

We have been led to make these remarks from ... t that the subject of making homesteads on the ... irts of this city and East Portland is being thor ... f here among all classes and one home ... EASTERN DATES TO NOVEMBER 1

General News

TOURS Oct 31 The journals announce that should the Prussians succeed in cutting the railroad communicating with the north French vessels of war will carry the mail between France and England

LONDON Oct 31 The Prussians continue the siege of Phalsburg languidly reckoning on starving out the garrison whose supplies are beginning to fail

LONDON Oct 31 —The Germans around Paris are holding solemn religious services to day The bombardment of the city commences to morrow

King William Determined to Bombard Paris

VERSAILLES Oct 31 —Formal notice of the capitulation of Metz was sent to Paris to day with a flag of truce The King announces his determination to bombard Paris He considers that the enormous number of prisoners who must be subject to all the privations of suffering and hunger consequent upon a long siege as at Metz would under these circumstances be more mercifully dealt with by forcing an entry for them into Paris and be a proper tribute of respect for those who had fought best for France

Large numbers of reinforcements for the Prussian troops reached the investing lines to-day

LONDON Oct 31 —It is generally believed in stock exchange that Paris will offer a determined resistance

Small pox is raging with violence at Amiens The disease was brought there by fugitives from Paris

French Indignation at the Surrender of Metz

TOURS Oct 31 —The Military Commandants of a great number of Departments telegraph to Ministers here expressing the utmost indignation at the surrender of Metz and their determination to continue to the last extremity

Rumors have been circulating all day which contribute to public anxiety Some assert that peace is signed without reference to the Tours Government and that Bazaine has been acting in accordance with instructions from Napoleon and that Changarnier refusing to surrender took command of troops in Metz and will cut his way out.

In nearly all the towns of the South and West the National Guard and citizens have made imposing demonstrations in favor of the Republic

French Military Movement.

LONDON Oct 31 —A special correspondent writes as follows

TOURS Oct 28 —I have just returned from Lemans There are no troops there but the Mobiles and National Guards are enroute for Rennes ... headquarters Every town and valley on the road is filled with soldiers, Arms seem abundant including Chassepots, Remingtons and Snyders

The army of Loire will pass through Tours Large infantry forces arrived to day Troops from Galbays are rapidly joining the 16th corps and advancing toward Vendome Their object is inexplicable

A special writes from Berlin on the 29th An officer of VonMoltke's staff writes me from Versailles of the 22d inst that when the Paris affair will be ended no mortal man can tell By personal calculations it, in a fortnight or three weeks but I may be mistaken At all events we shall do the business thoroughly, having to be sure hunger for our best ally

The Metz capitulation includes 63 infantry regiments 13 battalions of foot chasseurs 18 ... and depots battalions of 38 regiments namely Ten Cuirassiers one Garde ... eleven Dragoons two Lancers, three Hussars, three Chasseurs and three Chasseurs d Atrique Also ... squadrons ... batteries ... batteries of mitrailleurs 66 eagles belonging to infantry of which two formerly taken at Mars La Tours, and 30 cavalry including the garrison that surrendered The army originally comprised 291 battalions of Infantry and 161 squadrons of horse The original strength was 210 000 infantry and 1 450 cavalry 600 guns two ... mitrailleurs besides three Marshals (Bazaine Canrobert and Leboeuf) and three Corps Commanders (Froissard Decaen and Ladmirault) There are four division Generals and 10 Brigadiers Ninety thousand in round numbers of prisoners have been sent to North Germany and 20 000 to South Germany and the sick and wounded have been distributed in the same proportion

BERLIN Oct 31 —Herald Cable—The Reports are current here that an attempt was made yesterday on the life of King William The King was unhurt but General Roon who stood near was wounded

Lord Granville's proposition was for an armistice to enable election to be held only and did not involve peace The Paris Government did not desire an election but the Prussian Government will require, if an armistice is granted that it will not be granted for any other purpose

COPENHAGEN Oct 31 —Prussia has promised Denmark to fulfil stipulations of the treaty of Prague relative to North Schleswig hence the King in his last speech was enabled to refer to the future with confidence

LONDON Oct 31 —The persecution of Christians has been revived in Damascus and so great is the irritation of the natives against them that a general massacre is feared

Late advices from China state that the christian missionaries whose lives were threatened at Fungslow have been rescued

The Late Legislature

The Eugene Journal has the following article on the manner in which the late Legislature carried out the pledges given by the Democratic party

It was certainly to be expected by the people from the declarations of the Democratic speakers in the spring campaign that if the Democracy should get control of the State Government some step would be immediately taken to prevent the Chinese from coming to this State ... LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

Diplomatic Talk

LONDON Nov 1 —The decline in the stock market was in consequence of the Cabinet meeting called for the purpose as it was understood of considering what steps should be taken in regard to a continued and formidable armament of Russia It is stated that Russia has now 300 ... men under arms ready to take the field on the western frontier of the Empire

The story of a secret treaty between Russia and Prussia relative to the Eastern question has been received at Vienna with much feeling and a good deal of circumstantial ... It is ... that in the event of a treaty ... France ... has bound herself by a secret treaty signed at Wiesbaden in July last, between Gortschakoff and Bismarck to support a revision of the treaty of Paris and the liberation to Russia of the Black Sea and the Dardanelles This is expected to be the price demanded by Russia for permitting Germany to move unmolested on France It is further affirmed that as Russia does not care to leave the fulfillment of this treaty to the close of the war she is now insisting that in the treaty with France Prussia shall not receive other fortresses or a serious reinforcement of her strength on this side of the Rhine The Russian diplomatists regard it as essential to the safety of Holland and the progress of the Russian Empire westward that Germany should be left more or less exposed to peril from the side of France In short it is believed in Vienna and the signs are that it is beginning to be believed in London, that Russia having led Germany on this far in the war until her primary object of the prostration France has been accomplished even more completely than was ever hoped or expected, she has meanwhile been preparing herself quietly and is now prepared to exert such a pressure on both combatants as shall secure to her all her objects in the East without imperiling her European weight

Bazaine Denounced as a Traitor

The Independence Belge at Brussels learns from an officer who escaped from Metz and from the Moselle Independence published at Metz at the time of the entry of the German troops the fact that the French leaders to the last deceived the army by promises to get out. These promises were solemnly repeated even while the negotiations for surrender were pending. The Independence Belge says Gambetta was unquestionably right in charging Bazaine with treason The population of Metz were unanimous in denouncing Bazaine as a traitor After the capitulation had been agreed upon the people followed the Marshal through the streets howling epithets of traitor in his ears. At Tours the news of the capitulation fell upon the Government and people like a thunderbolt so strong had been the assurance of its safety Some of the journals and notably the Constitutionnel la France and Gazette de France ask a suspension of judgment and deprecate the strong language of Gambetta's proclamation condemning Bazaine Later journals suggest a council of war to investigate the matter, in order to give the Marshal a fair opportunity to make his defense The Government at Tours is in receipt of several memorials numerously signed in adjacent departments urging the prosecution of the war to the bitter end and denouncing Bazaine for his treasonable surrender of the strongest fortress of the nation

Bazaine and suite reached Cassel on Monday ... Canrobert, McMahon Leboeuf Bardelles and Houptmann are hourly expected there

Miscellaneous Dispatches

The Times has a telegram from Versailles announcing that Thiers passed through there Sunday on his way to Paris The general impression in London is that owing to the surrender of Bazaine nothing will come of the negotiations for peace

The general authorities have given orders that soldiers from Alsace and Lorraine who were captured before Metz as well as those who may hereafter be taken be separated from other prisoners as such will be regarded as Germans and not French One corps of the army lately investing Metz has been detailed to escort prisoners to Germany Two corps will go forward to join the armies around Paris The other four will be divided between the two armies now operating in the north and south of France The English dispatch, recommending the holding of elections for members of the Constituent Assembly immediately reached the Prussian headquarters The Prussian authorities had already sent a similar suggestion to Paris A proposition of the Prussians for an armistice of 33 hours in order to facilitate elections was instantly rejected by the Paris Government It is said the advice of influential Americans hastened the French rejection Gambetta left Paris expressly to prevent elections Gambetta has issued another proclamation to the army intimating that soldiers at Metz have protested against the cowardly capitulation at that place, and refuse to be bound by it

Chicago.

San Francisco after the Drawing—The Fortunate Holders of the Winning Tickets

SAN FRANCISCO Nov 1 —The city appears as if it had been on a dead drunk and was just recovering Absolutely no business is going on So far as known up to this time the whole amount of prizes won by people in San Francisco is less than $50 000

Lent's house was undoubtedly drawn back in whole or in part by himself He realized $3 ,000 out of the sale of tickets, which paid off the mortgage of $20 000 and left him a handsome balance It stands in the line of new Montgomery street and must be moved soon any way

The $100 000 was drawn by Theodore Heilman a ... merchant of New York and the $50 000 by Crosby Chief of General Sheridan's staff who bought it in Chicago John Rosenfeld of this city held 1 000 tickets and won an even $100 Several others did nearly as well The ticket drawing $50 000 was sold at Nevada City but the dealer has not the name of the purchaser and the present holder is unknown. A prize of $1 000 was also sold in Chicago the winner being a resident of that city

Real estate sales in San Francisco in October foot up only $925 130 The amount of money borrowed on mortgage during the same time was $90 462

Dealers in California wines, especially sparkling, report greatly improved demand, though prices have not advanced Landsberger & Co had every case of champagne in their house sold or engaged to-day The demand is mostly for the States and Territories this side of the Mississippi river though considerable is going to Chicago and St Louis

The City Bank Savings Loan and Discount being in straightened circumstances ask their depositors for an extension of six months Most of the depositors are willing to grant it The concern has but a very small line of business and the difficulty of collecting on mortgages is what has cramped it The office is on Sacramento street between Kearney and Montgomery The stockholders are amply responsible for all the debts The total paid up capital is said to be but $5 000 on a nominal capital of $500,000

Southern Oregon Railroad

A correspondent of the Roseburg Ensign writes from Canyonville under date of Oct 31

Since my last letter to you railroad matters have assumed a very different appearance The Ben Stout Pass that was then being surveyed has since been thoroughly surveyed and it proved to be utterly impossible to get through the pass After finding this out of course the only way was to go back to the canyon at any cost It is supposed that finally a tolerably good route has been found and is now being surveyed This route crosses the Umpqua river at Levens's mills at the mouth of Canyon creek crossing over the Thomas creek running up the mountain about two miles from the river leaving Canyonville about one half mile on the ... The object in taking this round about way is to get up as high as possible before striking the mountain in order to get to the summit

The surveying party consists of John T Wade as chief engineer who is fully capable of performing the difficult duties entrusted to his care It is not known whether the party will be kept all winter or not If not the probabilities are that they may possibly not proceed farther than the south end of the canyon leaving good ground to commence on in the spring But if they are they will survey up Cow creek and thence by the route I spoken of in my former letter The citizens of this vicinity are now gaining confidence in the assurance of a railroad ... long since they looked upon Holladay with distrust but their doubts have been removed by the positive course he is now pursuing

A paragraph in the New York Evening Post of the 15th inst says that the fast freight line has just reduced its rates from New York to San Francisco Sacramento Marysville and San Jose Cal as follows First class goods, per 100 lbs are now reduced to $6 50 second class $5 third class $4 50 and fourth class, $4 Eleven days is the quickest time yet made for first class goods from ocean to ocean

WEDNESDAY MORNING, NOV 2, 1870

Sources of National Strength

An Eastern [illegible] has a [illegible] what [illegible] valuable article on the present power of Germany and the agencies which have contributed to build it up. It is shown that for fifty years Germany has been growing in all the branches of her native industry, and that the [illegible] features of her Zoll verein [illegible] everywhere conceded that she has a right to point to her magnificent triumphs as a splendid vindication of her industrial policy. This tariff, first established by Prussia in 1818 to afford a moderate protection against foreign goods which had begun to make their appearance after the peace that followed the wars of Napoleon, and accepted by nearly all the German States twelve or fifteen years later, is pointed at as the source of the marvelous power which has enabled Germany to stand as a solid wall against her enemies. It elevated the social condition of the German people, and secured to them opportunities for improvement equal to their education and ambition. It has secured to Germany protection and security against invasion through an alliance which Mr. Macgregor, the well known English statistician, very justly characterized as "a far more solid and powerful confederacy than that by which the German States were politically allied." It is certain that the progress and prosperity of Germany, in industrial resources and development under the Zoll verein, has not been surpassed by that of any nation which has fostered its industry by the same principles of legislation.

When Germany began this course there were theorists and philosophers who attempted to dissuade the different States from entering into the customs union. But the tariff league, which was started as an experiment and for a limited time, became so popular that no one thought of separation when the time of probation was over. Princes and people found in it a perfect and agreeable solvent of all their difficulties, and refused to listen to the dissolution of a union the blessings of which were so direct and palpable. "The league became the third power of Germany—the tiers etat in its mildest and most loyal form, which a natural instinct taught the people to cultivate, as the surest means of advancing their most precious interests."

The new tariff of the Zoll verein, adopted in 1868, though fixing a low per centage of duty on some commodities, has fully preserved the rates on the importation of articles the manufacture of which at home it is deemed desirable to promote and foster. Under this policy the linens of Saxony, Silesia and Rhenish Prussia have become famous throughout the world. Cotton and woolen mills are numerous in all the Zoll verein States. The silks exported from Germany were a few years ago equal to the home consumption. Iron manufactures have increased in a rapid ratio. The machine shops of Prussia, Saxony and Bavaria rival the largest establishments of their kind in England. While every kind of handiwork, from the most necessary and useful to the most delicate and ephemeral, has found in the Zoll verein a friendly assistance which has made the names of many of the German cities synonyms of skill and industry the world over. A continuation of this policy, as the writer from whom these facts are drawn remarks, will enable Germany to bear the present heavy strain on her resources and to recover from her terrible losses with a thoroughness and rapidity only surpassed by that of the United States after the close of our war. And this customs league has been in reality the most powerful agency in securing the union of Germany. It has brought about this result, which for centuries had been impossible.

National Lincoln Monument

A pamphlet has been published relative to the proposed National Lincoln Monument, and giving the organization and design of the association, incorporated March 30, 1867. It also contains the proceedings of the Board of Managers, an account of the progress of the work, the names of representative men whose statues are to form a part of the monument, and an appeal to the country for aid and encouragement. This monument was projected previous to President Lincoln's death, and the design was shown to Secretary Seward, who complimented it by saying: "I have seen the principal monuments in Europe and can recollect nothing so rich and grand as that would be if carried out."

The officers of the Association are Hons. James Harlan, I. F. Driggs, F. E. Spinner and J. M. Edmunds, these gentlemen being respectively, President, Vice President, Treasurer and Secretary. Besides these there is a Board of Managers consisting of fourteen gentlemen all prominent in national affairs. The Board have adopted the design of Clark Mills for the monument, which is to be located on the grounds near the Capitol. We cannot describe the monument better than by quoting from the pamphlet:

> The pedestal will be of granite, and the figures of bronze. The whole structure will be seventy feet in height, of a triangular form with truncated angles. Crowning the main column is a colossal statue of Abraham Lincoln represented in the act of signing the Emancipation Proclamation. Six equestrian statues of the chief generals, whose valor contributed to the preservation of the Union, will be poised on bastions thrown out from the base of the angles. These have been selected, namely: Grant, Sherman, Thomas, Sheridan, Howard and Wadsworth.
> On the second section, grouped about the middle of the monument, are twenty one colossal statues of statesmen, philanthropists, and civilians who stood by Lincoln through the dark days of the rebellion. Among these are War Minister Stanton, the strong right arm of the President during his entire administration; W. H. Seward, who, throughout that critical period, saved the country from foreign intervention and maintained peace with all nations; and Salmon P. Chase, whose rare financial ability created a currency and sustained the country's credit through all the trying years of the rebellion.
>
> The Christian Commission will be represented in the person of George H. Stuart, its Chairman, and the Sanitary Commission in the person of Dr. Bellows, President of the Eastern Commission, and J. E. Yateman, President of the Western. These followed our brave defenders into the field, the camp, and the hospital, carried to the bedside substantial evidence of the love and gratitude of the country, and thus restored to the ranks thousands of courageous soldiers, imparting to the army and nation, in the shape of material charity, the priceless wealth of moral power.
>
> The loyal pulpit will be represented by those distinguished and patriotic divines, Bishop Simpson and Henry Ward Beecher, whose spirit stirring appeals rang through the land and stirred the inhabitants to deeds of heroic valor.
>
> On the third section there will be three historical figures, one at each corner of the monument, the first representing the American private soldier—his country's boast, his country's trust—the second representing the noble part performed by women, under the figure of America caring for her disabled soldiers, and the third the liberated slave who, under the influence of our American progressism, stands forth not only freed, but cultured.
>
> On the fourth section there will be three allegorical figures representing the great principles embodied in the American Constitution—justice, liberty and equality, ministering to the crowning figure, the great embodiment of them all, the martyr Lincoln.
> The monument will present three scenes in bas relief: The first representing the [illegible] on Fort Sumpter, the second the surrender of Gen Lee, and the third the Congress amending the Constitution abolishing slavery, and establishing civil rights.

In aid of this great project Congress has donated over $[illegible]00,000 worth of captured cannon and metal of which to make the bronze figures of the monument. The entire cost of the latter is estimated at $[illegible]00,000.

Something about Plunder

The Herald [illegible] Radicals. Now here is what a Democratic Legislative Committee, appointed to investigate the manner in which the State Printing is done, says about the Herald:

> Your committee, to whom was referred Senate Resolution 17, instructing the Committee on Public Printing to inquire into and report whether or not the public printing is done according to law, submit that they have examined the journals and the incidental printing for the present session, and are convinced that gross frauds have been practiced against the State in the matter of printing by means of constructive charges.

Thus the proprietor of the Herald (who is State Printer) is shown by a Legislative Committee of his own party to have systematically swindled the State. Let it be noted that a term no less emphatic than "gross frauds" is used to describe the operations of the Herald's owner. Now let the Herald continue to assail Radical plunderers.

They who wonder how France can expect to find men to fill her armies and prolong the war since the fall of Metz and other great reverses should remember that there are now in France outside of Paris not less than four millions of men capable of bearing arms. Says the New York Independent: "The population of France is compact, the territorial extent is not great, and the military machinery is or ought always to be in working order throughout the whole country." We know there was a scarcity of arms for a time, but England has sent over several hundred thousand rifles since the war began, and this country has done its share in the same business. It looks as though France were weak in more respects than one.

The New York World continues its assaults on the law of Congress to prevent illegal voting, and styles it Know Nothingism in a new form. It also asserts that it strikes indiscriminately at all who were born abroad—when nothing could be further from the truth. The law, as the World well knows, was passed with the sole intention of preventing fraudulent voting, and it is because the Democracy of New York fear that the law will be effective that they assail it so recklessly.

OREGON

John G. Wright, of Salem, draws a $200 prize in the Mercantile Library Lottery. This is the only prize that the Statesman has heard of coming to Salem.

The Eugene Journal reports that Mr. Jerry Luckey, one of the oldest and best known citizens of Lane county, has become deranged in mind. He has been laboring under insanity for about ten days.

"Spull Murphy," who has figured extensively in Police Courts in all the towns of Oregon, has found quarters for some time to come, as he was caught thieving at Albany, and was sent up by Judge Boise for a term of two years in the State Prison.

The Mayor of Salem publishes a communication from the Board of Health of that place stating that another examination has been made by physicians of the disease supposed to be small pox, now prevailing, and they are of the opinion that it is not the small pox at all.

The State Journal gives the particulars of the recent killing by D. C. Felch, night watchman at Eugene, of Robert G. Hadley, who seems to have been a man of bad character. Felch and Hadley had an altercation about a year ago. Hadley fired at Felch and was shot by the latter, and so badly hurt as to be laid up for several weeks, and since then he has entertained a bitter grudge. They met the other night, and Felch says the other was about to draw a revolver, when he fired upon him. Three shots took effect, and Hadley died in forty five minutes. An examination was held before Justice Brown and the testimony of twenty-four witnesses taken, after which Felch was discharged, the killing being considered as justified by the circumstances.

THE TERRITORIES

A silver fox has been captured near Walla Walla. It is the first one ever seen or heard of in that part of the country.

Two men in Cheyenne got to shooting at each other. The local paper says of one of them: "His soul instantaneously dropped its humanity." It is mean for a paper to break off so in an interesting story. We want to know if the man died.

Recent developments in some of the first ground opened in the old Bannack mines—the pioneer camp of Montana territory—show that the first claimants failed to get a moiety of the gold from their claims. At the depth of thirty one feet bed rock was struck on the old claim of Dance & Stuart, and splendid prospects were obtained.

Miss Kitty Simmons, who resides on the Cowlitz river with her mother, a short time since observed a very large black bear in the immediate vicinity of the house, and there being no man about the premises, she got her brother's gun down, saw that it was loaded, and then boldly went out after the animal. Finding him in a short time, she advanced in close proximity, aimed her weapon and fired—killing him in his tracks.

The Boise Statesman of the 27th ult. has the following notice of the destruction of Centerville:

> The town which heretofore has been so fortunate as to escape serious conflagration, we are sorry to learn, has at last been swallowed up by the devouring element. On Monday evening last a fire broke out in a China house, and in a short time the whole town was destroyed. We learn that the great portion of the merchandise in store was saved, partly by removing goods, but principally by the effective resistance of the fire proof cellars.

From the Olympia Transcript: We understand from a friend just up from Seattle, who has been out on the line of the North Pacific railroad from Seattle to the Snoqualmie Pass, that the general line of said road runs up the Duwamish and crosses near the mouth of Cedar river, and follows up Cedar river and crosses over to the Rattlesnake prairie, and thence to the summit of the Snoqualmie Pass, along the base of the mountains, carrying a grade to the Pass of 6[illegible] feet per mile at the greatest elevation. A tunnel of one half mile at the Pass will have to be constructed, which will save some six miles of length of line in getting to the open country on the other side of the mountains. The general line of the road is spoken of favorably, and the Pass itself is between one and two hundred feet lower than previous surveys have made it. The survey of Mr. Maxwell definitely settles the practicability of the Snoqualmie Pass beyond further cavil.

There are some new theories about red sandstone which, if they stand the test of practice, will constitute some highly important discoveries. It is said on high authority that wheat grown above sandstone contains far more iron and phosphorus than wheat grown above coal. When we remember how much iron is needed for the blood and phosphorus for the brain of this generation, the consequence of this becomes manifest. Especially is the discovery, if it is one, of value to the literary and studious classes. It is pointed out among other things by advocates of its truth that roses take their color from the plants upon which they feed, and plants from the soil on which they grow. Also that the mighty red oxen of Devon thrive best on a sandstone soil.

Secretary Seward Unpleasantly Criticised

In the [illegible] for November, Secretary Welles, in narrating the facts in relation to the attempt to relieve Fort Sumter in March, 1861, makes some strong charges against his colleague, the Hon. W. H. Seward. The allegations may not be strictly new, but they have never before been so formally and specifically set forth. They are, in brief, that while President Lincoln's plan was wholly on the defensive, thus throwing upon the secessionists the responsibility of [illegible] news from Major Anderson that Fort Sumter had supplies for only six weeks, and [illegible] General Scott thought it would be impossible to relieve the fort in consequence of the strong batteries which the rebels had erected at the opening of the harbor, [illegible] several veteran naval officers were of the contrary opinion, and an expedition for carrying relief to the fort was determined on. The Powhatan and other vessels were set apart for this service, and it was designed they were to reach Charleston about the 11th of April.

The Secretary of State was of course made acquainted with the scheme, but it did not meet his approval. He had been negotiating with the rebel commissioners. In his anxiety to induce the South to keep the peace he had assured the envoys that Sumter might be evacuated, and that at all events no attempt should be made to take troops or provisions thither without notifying the Governor of South Carolina. When he found that it was actually resolved to send an expedition, he induced the President on the 8th of April to inform Governor Pickens what he had ordered. He was not content with this. Having done a large amount of negotiating on his own responsibility, he was not inclined to be overruled. He presented a number of papers to the President, which the latter signed without reading. Among these was one placing Capt. Barron, soon after an avowed rebel, at the head of an important naval bureau. Secretary Welles, who had been one of the prime movers of the expedition, was not at all pleased at having a man foisted upon him whose integrity he suspected, and hastened to make his complaints to Mr. Lincoln. The President was as much surprised as the Secretary, and revoked the order at once. He then looked over the other papers and found one countermanding the assignment of the Powhatan to the Sumter expedition and sending her to the relief of Fort Pickens, for which other arrangements had been made. It was too late, however, to remedy the matter, and the Powhatan sailed off to Pensacola. The rest of the expedition went to Charleston, but, as the world now knows, accomplished nothing.

Mr. Welles does not believe that Mr. Seward was in sympathy with the rebels, but had acted thus far on the supposition that he was like the English Prime Minister, the virtual executive of the country. He had instituted the policy of trying to conciliate the rebels by magnanimity, and was determined to test his plan to the utmost. Its folly was proved by the attack on Sumter, in which the men who only wanted to be let alone assumed the offensive. The snarl in which Mr. Lincoln had involved himself by his careless signing of the papers induced greater caution on his part, and during the remainder of his term of office he was actually as well as nominally President, and each head of a department was warned to attend to his own duties, and not trespass upon the prerogatives of other members of the Cabinet.

Mr. Welles claims that Captain, afterward Admiral, Porter and General Montgomery Meigs were associated with Mr. Seward in his scheme for restoring peace in his own fashion, and thinks that all of them were cleverly manipulated by the rebel commissioners with whom they had to deal.

The prominent events of the rebellion have often been described, but there is much of its inner history that will probably remain unknown until the present generation has passed away. The great struggle is yet too recent for plain speaking on many topics, and posterity will doubtless be better able than men of our own times to award to all the actors the credit or discredit which is their due.

LEE'S GENERALSHIP.—"Gath," the able correspondent of the Chicago Tribune, writes the following searching criticism of Lee's generalship:

> Lee's first campaign in West Virginia against Rosecrans and McClellan was so negligently managed that he seemed to have acquired [illegible] heart for the business of treason, or perhaps was disgusted with his allies, Wise, Floyd, Rust & Co. He never rose to that positive generalship which sends its magnetic spirit forth to inspire terror by the coming of it. He affected the Federal troops as a wise, cautious and skillful officer, who was not to be caught napping, but whose power was rather artistic than massive. He fought gracefully, and was cleverer in stopping a blow than in giving one. His offensive campaigns were of limited scope, and they were undertaken distrustfully. A wide, conquering imagination he seems never to have had, that spirit of desolation and menace which boasted with Ulysses that he had
>
> "Drunk delight of battle with my peers,
> Far on the ringing plains of windy Troy."
>
> To compare Lee, therefore, with Marlborough, Wolfe, Turenne, Napoleon, Von Moltke, or any of the all absorbed military heroes of modern military organizations, will be injustice to both. He insensibly felt the humanizing tendency of the age he resisted, and was a cowardly administrator of his talent. He [illegible] to be in his native State to acquit himself like a General. He was a soldier by talent and not by force, the inheritor of "Light Horse" Harry Lee's military traits, and for the first without considerable endowments.
>
> There are two elements which make great Generals as pugilists: gluttony, or the capacity to stand and the lust to give bloody [illegible], and genius, which consists of confidence, skill, prescience and large intention. Grant had at least one of these, and when he faced Lee on the Rappahannock he was the more positive man. Lee never imbued any battle with his personal entity. He was without passions, without intentions—simply with [illegible]. This sort of man is rare in a self asserting age, and this sort of negative hero was the South's. His was clean generalship. Nature chiseled him for a superior engine, but forgot to give him a boiler.

Puget Sound Homestead Association.

THE REGULAR QUARTERLY MEETING OF THE Stockholders of the Puget Sound Homestead Association will be held next Wednesday evening at [illegible] o'clock, [illegible] office of Russell & Ferry. Members are earnestly requested to be present.

The lands of the Association are rapidly appreciating in value. The surveys of the Northern Pacific Railroad are rapidly progressing and will be vigorously pushed all winter. It is almost certain that the waters of the River and the Sound will be united by railroad the coming year. The preliminary line already surveyed traverses the lands on the Newaukum river, and the time is now come to consider the feasibility of starting a town there. A [illegible] region of fine farming land borders the Newaukum, which, though now sparsely settled, is [illegible] supporting a large population, and the place where the railroad crosses the stream would seem the natural site for a thriving country town. The Association owns a tract of 320 acres of rich bottom land. The day the railroad is completed between the Sound and the River this tract alone will be worth as much as all the lands of the Association cost, and if well managed can be made to realize for the benefit of the Stockholders far more than their whole investment.

The following resolution will be offered for your consideration:

Resolved, That the President and Directors be authorized to give not exceeding one-fourth of the Association lands on the Newaukum river to the Northern Pacific Railroad Company for the establishment of a depot at that point.

CITY.

[illegible] In one on which [illegible] on Monday upon the [illegible] some [illegible] storm [illegible] week and [illegible] engaged in [illegible] commerce [illegible] President [illegible] the Company and Secretary of the Board of [illegible] The number [illegible] and the amount of money swallowed up in the [illegible] wrecks [illegible] has reached the enormous sum of $33,182,080. As before stated a large number of these casualties occurred near [illegible] under circumstances which would have permitted timely warning [illegible] signal [illegible] in operation. The equinoctial gales so regular and so much dreaded [illegible] do not seem to prevail on this coast, except in the Gulf of California and along a portion of the Mexican coast north of Acapulco. Cordonazos, as they are called, exactly answer to our western equinoctial storms, and although of comparatively short duration, are of excessive violence, with the wind [illegible] successively from every point of the compass, rendering the manner's greatest skill unavailing, and leaving the vessel wholly at their mercy. The cordonazos which destroyed the Continental undoubtedly gave some indication of its coming, and might have been shunned by the assistance of a well appointed storm signal corps, the organization of which by every civilized country is due to commerce and humanity.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT—SAWYER, J.—Tuesday, Nov. 1st, 1870. George Venable Smith, J. J. Henderson and Charles Gardner were admitted to the bar. L. M. Starr vs. Benjamin Stark. In equity—Complainant had leave to withdraw the amended bill without prejudice, and defendant has until Monday next to plead. Mary Barrett vs. Charles Barrett—Dismissed by plaintiff with [illegible] prejudice. Benjamin Stark vs. L. M. Starr and Benjamin Stark vs. L. Johnson—Order consolidating these cases and substituting L. M. Starr as defendant. In a large number of the ejectment suits brought by L. M. Mitsner, Ida Squires and Emma S. and John R. Lamb orders were made placing them on the docket and substituting the landlords as defendants therein.

EAST PORTLAND.—The Trustees of the newly incorporated city of East Portland held their first meeting on Monday evening and organized. The Board consists of Dr. J. C. Hawthorne, S. Hypse, Nat Lane, G. Tibbetts and A. M. Loryea. A. M. Loryea was elected President of the Board and J. A. Newel Recorder and Auditor. City officials were elected as follows: Marshal, J. B. Lane; Attorney, C. B. Bellinger; Assessor, B. F. West; Street Commissioner, Wm. Dalton; Treasurer, Barney Trainor. Ordinances were passed for licensing bar rooms, hotel runners, etc.

PLAZA CONCERT.—The programme for the Concert at the Plaza at 3 o'clock this afternoon is as follows, by the 23d Infantry band:

1. March, "The New Recruit."
2. The Bell Polka.
3. Schubert's Serenade.
4. Quadrille from "Belle Helene."
5. Chase Polka.
6. Waltzes, "The Beautiful Danube."
7. Selections from the Opera, "Genevieve."
8. Sabre Galop from "La Grande Duchesse."

OUTRAGEOUS EXTORTION.—The wood-sawing business in this city is nearly monopolized by Chinamen, and these miserable monopolists have lately put up the price to a dollar and six bits a cord. Outrageous! We hear of a good many good men who won't stand it. They declare they will saw their own wood first. That is the kind of pluck to win. What business has a Chinaman to put up the price just as it is the fall of the year and supplies for winter are being laid in.

OUT OF LUCK.—They jest at scars who never felt a wound, but no jesting matter is it with those 199,372 persons who went in a five for the $100,000 prize and came out without a scad. We saw a man yesterday who told us he came within one of getting a hundred dollars anyhow. His number was next to that of somebody else who did draw. He was the luckiest fellow we have met of all the legion who were interested in the San Francisco Mercantile lottery scheme.

WALLA WALLA RAILROAD.—It is said that a part of Mr. Alvinza Hayward's mission east of the mountains was to look after the Walla Walla Valley Railroad. We learn that he has intimated a willingness to build the road. In accordance with the provisions of the act of Congress, passed some years since, granting the right of way and conceding certain privileges, Walla Walla county is authorized to subscribe $300,000. This is a good lay out to secure the road.

BUSINESS MAN'S GUIDE.—L. P. Fisher & Co., the popular newspaper advertising agents of San Francisco, have sent to our address their descriptive guide. It contains a description of those towns and cities on the Pacific coast in which newspapers are published. Besides being good in the line of business for which it was originally [illegible], it is really a valuable guide to a knowledge of the principal towns and cities on the coast.

VESSELS IN PORT.—The vessels in this port yesterday were as follows: Steamship Oriflamme, loading for San Francisco, to sail to-morrow; ships Edward James and Garibaldi, loading for Hong Kong; bark Zephyr, loading for San Francisco; ships Montgomery Castle and Webfoot, discharging. The bark T[illegible] is yet anchored in the stream awaiting orders.

THEATRICAL.—The Bates Dramatic Company have now in active preparation the great dramas "Capture of Rouen," "Belphegor" and "Angel of Midnight," all of which will soon be produced in rapid succession. "Green Bushes, or the Hunters of the Mississippi," was repeated last evening at Oro Fino Theater. This splendid piece will be rendered at matinee on next Saturday afternoon.

ACCIDENTS.—Yesterday morning a laboring man named McCarty had his right arm and two fingers of the left hand smashed badly by a bar of railroad iron as he was working on the car discharging at the bark Webfoot. Jeff Dennison had his right arm broken at Salem while coupling cars to make up a train.

REPAIRING.—The steamer Alert is undergoing repairs and her place is supplied by the Senator. When these repairs are finished the Senator will take her place in the Oregon City line for after[noon] trips, returning in the morning. The Alert will run as usual, leaving here in the morning and return in the afternoon.

REMANDED.—Thos. Knowlson, the sailor for whom application for habeas corpus was made in the U. S. District Court on Monday, was remanded to jail yesterday upon a hearing on the application before Judge Deady. He is a deserter from [illegible] in this port and is held for safety to insure his return to the ship.

GRAND CHAPTER.—The proceedings of the R. A. Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Oregon at its tenth annual convocation held at Astoria on Friday, June [illegible], 1870, has been published by A. [illegible] Walling. It is an octavo volume of nearly 90 pages, neatly printed.

TAX MORE.—Holders of tickets in the great lottery should not consign them to the waste basket too soon. Ten prizes had not been heard from at [illegible] o'clock P. M. yesterday. The official report [illegible] will not be published until the first day [illegible].

[illegible] the Board of Indian Commissioners arrived here last evening from Idaho [illegible] on business connected with the [illegible] of Indian affairs and will go [illegible] and return thence to Washington.

[illegible] The new steamer came over to [illegible] yesterday.

A trotting [illegible] afternoon [illegible] Race Course, at the White House.

[illegible]—We learn that Prof. M. [illegible] founder of the Pacific Business College of San Francisco, has again assumed the Presidency. He is also still connected with the National Business College of Portland.

[illegible] The German and Hebrew School under the charge of Rev. Dr. Eckman commenced the regular course of teaching yesterday.

GONE EAST.—Hon. D. P. Thompson, Senator from Clackamas county, will leave for the Eastern States on Monday or Tuesday of next week.

Marine Disasters — In connection with an article in this paper on Monday upon the subject of storm signals it may not be without some interest to revert to the record of wrecks and marine disasters occurring to the fleet engaged in the commerce of California as furnished annually by J Hopkins President of the California Insurance Company and Secretary of the Board of Marine Underwriters. The number of wrecks and marine disasters since 1850 [illegible] and the amount of money swallowed up in the wrecks total and partial since [illegible] the enormous sum of $33 182 08. A large number of these casual[ties] occurred near the coast and under circumstances which would have permitted timely warning had the storm signal corps been in operation. The equinoctial gales so regular and so dreaded in the Atlantic do not seem to prevail on this coast except in the Gulf of California and along some portion of the Mexican coast north of Acapulco. Cordonazos, as they are called, exactly answer to our wildest equinoctial storms, and although of comparatively short duration, are of excessive violence with the wind veering suddenly from every point of the compass, rendering the mariner's greatest skill unavailing and leaving the vessel wholly at the mercy of the gale. The cordonazo which destroyed the [illegible] and undoubtedly gave some indication of its coming, and might have been shunned by the agency of a well appointed storm signal corps, the organization of which by every civilized country is due to commerce and humanity.

U S District Court — SAWYER, J — Tuesday Nov 1st, 1870. George Venable Smith J J Hoffman and Charles Gardner were admitted to practice. L M Starr vs Benjamin Stark in equity. Complainant had leave to withdraw the amended bill without prejudice and defendant granted Monday next to plead. Mary Barrett vs Charles Barrett—Dismissed by plaintiff with costs. Benjamin Stark vs L M Starr et al; Benjamin Stark vs L Johnson—Order consolidating these cases, and substituting L M Starr et al defendants. In a large number of the ejectment suits brought by L M Mitzner Ida [illegible], and Emma S and John R Lamb orders were made placing them on the docket and substituting the landlords as defendants therein.

East Portland —The Trustees of the newly incorporated city of East Portland held their first meeting on Monday evening and organized. The Board consists of Dr J C Hawthorne S [illegible], Eli Lane, G Tibbetts and A M Loryea. A M Loryea was elected President of the Board and J A Newell, Recorder and Auditor. City officers were elected as follows: Marshal J B [illegible]; Attorney, C B Bellinger; Assessor R [illegible]; Street Commissioner Wm Dalton; Treasurer Barney Trainor. Ordinances were passed for licensing bar rooms hotel runners etc.

Band Concert —The programme for the Concert on the Plaza at 3 o'clock this afternoon is as follows, by the 23d Infantry band:

1 March "The New Recruit"
2 The Bell Polka.
3 Schubert's Serenade
4 Quadrille from 'Belle Helene
5 Shepherd Polka.
6 Waltz "The Beautiful Danube
7 [illegible] from the Opera, Genevieve
8 Galop from Le Grande Duchesse

Shameless Extortion —The wood sawing business in this city is nearly monopolized by Chinamen, and these miserable monopolists have put up the price to a dollar and six bits a cord. We hear of a good many people who won't stand it. They declare they will saw their own wood first. That is the kind of talk to win. What business has a Chinaman to put up the price just as it is the fall of the year, and supplies for winter are being laid in?

Lucky —"They just at scars who never felt a wound," but no jesting matter is it with those [illegible] who went in a five for the $5000 prize and came out without a scad. We met a man yesterday who told us he came within one of getting a hundred dollars anyhow. His number was next to that of somebody else who drew. He was the luckiest fellow we heard of, of all the legion who were interested in the San Francisco Mercantile lottery scheme.

Walla Walla Railroad —It is said that a part of Mr. Alvinza Hayward's mission east of the mountains was to look after the Walla Walla railroad. We learn that he has intimated a willingness to build the road. In accordance with the provisions of the act of Congress passed some years since, granting the right of way and conceding certain privileges, Walla Walla county is authorized to subscribe $300 000 to help her out to secure the road.

Traveler's Guide —L P Fisher & Co [illegible] advertising agents of San Francisco, have sent to our address their descriptive guide. It contains a description of those [towns] through the Pacific coast in which [newspapers are] published. Besides being good for the line of business for which it was originally designed, it is really a valuable guide to a knowledge of the principal towns and cities on the coast.

Vessels in Port —The vessels in this port are as follows: Steamship Oriflamme for San Francisco to sail to-morrow; [bark] Edward James and Garibaldi loading for Hongkong; bark Zephyr loading for San Francisco; ship Montgomery Castle and Webfoot discharging. The bark [illegible] is yet anchored in the stream, awaiting orders.

Theatrical —The Bates Dramatic Company [have in] active preparation the great dramas of the Robber of Rouen, Belphegor and "Angel of [Midnight]" all of which will soon be produced in [turn]. Green Bushes, or the Hunt [on] the Mississippi, was repeated last evening at the Oro Fino Theater. This splendid piece will be rendered at matinee on next Saturday [afternoon].

Accidents — Yesterday morning a laboring man named McCarty had his right arm and two fingers of the left hand smashed badly by a bar of railroad iron as he was working on the car [while loading] at the bark Webfoot. Jeff Dennison had his right arm broken at Salem while coupling cars to make up a train.

Repairing —The steamer Alert is undergoing repairs, and her place is supplied by the Senator. When these repairs are finished the Senator will take her place in the Oregon City line for afternoon trips up, returning in the morning. The Alert will run as usual, leaving here in the morning and returning in the afternoon.

Remanded —Trou Knoedsen, the sailor for whom application for habeas corpus was made in the U S District Court on Monday, was remanded yesterday upon a hearing on the application before Judge Deady. He is a deserter from a ship in this port and is held for safety to insure his return to the ship.

Grand Chapter —The proceedings of the [Grand] Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Oregon, at its tenth annual convocation held at Portland on Friday June 17th 1870 has been published by A G Walling. It is an octavo of nearly 80 pages neatly printed.

Too Soon —Holders of tickets in the great lottery should not consign them to the waste basket as yet. Ten prizes had not been heard from at 5 o'clock P M yesterday. The official report of the managers will not be published until the [first] day of next month.

Arrived —Mr Vincent Colyer of the Board of Indian Commissioners arrived here last evening from Idaho. He is traveling on business connected with the administration of Indian affairs, and will go on to California and return to Washington.

Easy Mention —The new steamer [illegible] [arrived] to this city yesterday.

A trotting race is announced to come off this [afternoon] over the Riverside Race Course at the [usual] hour.

Pacific Business College —We learn that Mr. M K Laudenslager, founder of the [Pacific] Business College of San Francisco has again assumed the Presidency. He is also still connected with the National Business College of Portland.

Hebrew School —The German and Hebrew school under the charge of Rev. Dr Eckman commenced the regular course of teaching yesterday.

Gone East —Hon D P Thompson, Senator from Clackamas county, will leave for the East [on] Monday or Tuesday of next week.

Debt —The old West Side Railroad Company's matters are a very deeply complicated mass. A long war, an unfinished one, started lately would serve by one of our cotemporaries in order to [illegible] one of the mires and reach the initial point again in law. The case was thus stated by the [Bulletin] last evening. It appears that Mr W S Ladd, Captain Ainsworth, S G Reed and [J] R [Ainsworth] are endeavoring to purchase a majority of the claims against the old West Side Company. The reason for this last movement is obvious. They were the contractors of the construction of the West Side road. They managed to obtain all the money all the donations of lands [and] other values for the road and they received also the money for the iron sold to the East Side company. Having exhausted the revenues of the West Side company they next suspended operations in building the road and now they desire to cast the old company into bankruptcy. The suit which is now pending against S G Reed & Co contractors under the old company by that company for the recovery of the valuable real estate in the northern part of the city worth $100 000 and $1 000 000 for violation of contract is the thing which these contractors are trying to defeat or escape from themselves and this thing they hope to accomplish by first putting the old company in bankruptcy next purchasing the majority of the claims against it and this will enable them to elect the assignee in bankruptcy, to do which will of course give them great advantage and enable them by some way or other to escape the results of the suit brought against them by the old company.

Friendly Sons of St Patrick — Messrs Donohoe, Tobin, O'Farrell, Garneau and other prominent citizens of San Francisco have just instituted a new society of Irishmen representing the weal by intelligent and refined classes of that nationality resident on this coast to be known as the Friendly Sons of St Patrick.

Non Producers

The following article on non producers in California taken from the Stockton Independent may have application a good deal wider than the limits of that State:

Every community has its non producers and men of leisure but it is very doubtful whether California cannot show a larger number of this class in proportion to the population than any other civilized country on the globe. In other sections men of leisure are usually men of means whose capital enables them to live in ease, but California possesses a larger class of idle men who have no occupation or visible means of support made up of disappointed and unsuccessful miners, broken merchants, played out politicians who have discovered a way to obtain a living without work and apparently systemized the practice of bumming until it may now be called the regular profession of many persons in our larger towns and cities. Their long practice has made them very skillful and apparently they are able to enjoy as much pleasure, luxury and ease as many others who believe in the practices of industry and frugality. It is not strange that the census statistics show that California has not made as much progress as several of the other States during the last decade. There is plenty of profitable employment for all but from some cause or other we have too many who are either too proud or too lazy to work, and who manage somehow to live at the expense of the community. The number of these 'dead beats' is frightfully large and are becoming a perfect nuisance. Let an old resident of any portion of the interior of the State but visit San Francisco and he will be astonished at the number of shabbily genteel men there to be seen, who at the first opportunity and upon the shortest acquaintance will politely ask him for a trifling loan to meet an unexpected call upon their purse. They apparently are continually having these unexpected calls, and live on what they thus obtain from their acquaintances. The prompt arrest of many of these characters as vagrants, with the alternative of either going to work for themselves or for the public in the chain gang, would have a tendency to suppress what is becoming a nuisance, and also add much to the resources of the State.

Incendiarism at Salem

The Statesman of Tuesday says:

On Saturday evening a fire was discovered in the barn attached to the premises lately occupied by Mr F P Cranston, and not used of late. It was evidently the work of an incendiary but was fortunately [discovered] in time and easily extinguished. Considerable apprehension was occasioned by this fact and because of other fires and attempts to burn barns and outhouses during the last few weeks. Some persons watched to see that no fires were set on Sunday night, but as early as seven o'clock the barn on the premises of [illegible] Graves, previously occupied by Mr Gamble was set on fire in the loft, and soon became a brilliant flame. The alarm was rung and in an almost inconceivable short space of time the engines were out and had traversed the half mile to the spot of conflagration and it was extinguished, only the upper part of the barn being burned. Tiger No 2 was the first on the ground and threw the first water, but the greatest praise is due the department for its prompt and efficient action as both engines were there at nearly the same instant. While we write this item another alarm is sounded and we learn that this time the barn of Charles Bowker was set on fire but was extinguished without much damage being done. [This is the] [illegible] attempt. This makes five attempts to fire buildings and fences on that block within a week. Whoever is learning the trade of incendiary in town is paying particular attention to it but is [illegible] to set out buildings of little value in flames. It is a very poor trade and every effort will be made to put a stop to it. The penalty to the criminal is one of the most severe known to the law.

Another Lake Tunnel at Chicago — Another tunnel under Lake Michigan is to be built by the Chicago Board of Public Works. It will be built within fifty feet of the present tunnel and will extend two miles out into the Lake. The internal diameter of the tunnel will be seven feet two inches from top to bottom and just seven feet from side to side. The Evening Journal says: There is to be a shore shaft and a lake shaft. The land shaft will be ten feet in diameter and lined with brick and [illegible] twelve inches thick. Near the land shaft the tunnel is to have a bulkhead [illegible] which [illegible] closed when [illegible] may require. The lake shaft will be eight feet six inches in diameter and made of cast iron one and one quarter inches thick. It will be located in the well of the present crib. The bottom of the tunnel, inside, will be seventy feet below the ordinary level of the lake and will [illegible] inches to the mile as it extends west.

The capacity of the new tunnel will be just double that of the present one. When [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] possibility of the city being [illegible] its full supply of pure water [illegible] [illegible] impossible.

The death of the Earl of Mayo [illegible] [illegible] Mr Gladstone [illegible] the best prize in the lottery of British Ministerial patronage. The salary is [illegible] 000 per annum with an outfit of £2[illegible] 000 besides the passage for the Viceroy and suite and the [palace] furnished in royal style in the capitals of India. These are the [smallest] advantages but the indirect emoluments are so immense that the Indian Viceroy after having expended the whole of his salary [illegible] at the end of his official term of six years brings back with him from £100 000 to £150 000 in hard cash. He is entitled to receive presents from the Indian princes, many of whom have the wealth of sovereigns but he usually comes back with a fortune nevertheless.

CALIFORNIA AND NEVADA

Indians and Chinamen are making sad havoc with the trout in Humboldt river, Nevada, using seines, poison, etc.

Eighteen loaded freight cars lately passed over the Central Pacific Railroad that are to go direct by through from San Francisco to New York.

Work on the new fortifications at [illegible] near San Francisco is progressing rapidly. Men are employed on [illegible] a wagon road along the shore.

The Los Angeles News says that thirteen four horse teams were counted in that city at one time loaded with grapes on their way to various wine making establishments.

It is now asserted that there is no truth in the report that the Central Pacific Railroad Company has bought the boats of the California Steam Navigation Company or that they have ever signified a desire to buy them.

The Virginia [Enterprise] says of the political situation in Nevada that altogether the dead presents the dreariest campaign witnessed by the Democracy since the surrender of Appomattox. The [illegible] seem to feel quite despondent of a Republican victory.

The Bidwell mills near Chico have sold and shipped flour from the 1st of April to 1st of October 60 tons or 100 tons per month. The Bidwell orchards have sold and shipped $[illegible] 50 worth of fruit. The ranch has raised this season 34 000 bushels of grain has sold over 10 000 bushels of barley $[illegible] in cattle and $[illegible] 600 in horses.

The Napa Reporter speaks of the fact that the people of California have to pay fifty cents per dozen for eggs when thousands of dozens of eggs are brought from the East and sold at a profit. It adds: We hope that our Chicago friends will continue to send us their eggs and cheese and other such articles until a large class of our "farmers" are starved out and forced to leave. They are drones in the beautiful bee hive of California a disgrace to their calling and a drawback to the prosperity of the State. Think of it. Eggs shipped 2 500 miles per railroad, and still at a profit as cheap as our farmers will furnish them.

The census of the Eastern district of Michigan shows an increase of 253 000 in population since 1860 or very nearly 50 per cent. The increase in the Western district is still greater. The total population of Michigan will overgo 1 200 000.

The New York papers all seem agreed that Governor Hoffman is to be pressed as candidate of the Democracy for the Presidency in 1872. The Standard says Pendleton is to be tacked on the ticket as the Tammany chief's Vice President.

The St. Paul Press says that an innocent Democrat wandered into a wholesale Third street liquor store and seeing several hundred barrels of whisky lying around, he removed his hat and solemnly took a seat. In a few moments however he discovered his mistake and left the store with the apology that he thought it was a Democratic meeting.

Wonderful Silver Discovery in Lake Superior

A letter from Sault Ste Marie, Mich, to the Pittsburgh Commercial says:

The precious metals of Lake Superior which have remained untouched [above and] beneath the surface where nature placed them and where they have been known to exist for ages, but remained undeveloped on account of lying in the soil of a slow and short sighted government are about [illegible] the greatest excitement in the country [that] has known for years. It has long been known that [the] [illegible] [portion] of the north shore of Lake Superior about Thunder Bay in Canada was immensely rich in the precious metals, but the selfish and short sighted policy of the government and the monopolizing tendency of the Hudson's Bay Company have thrown every obstacle in the way of its development.

Recently two American companies have been formed and have succeeded in securing titles to an immense amount of mineral territory and are now [commencing] operations. [One] company has already reported at the [illegible] [illegible] at this place thirty six hundred weight of silver [illegible] which will yield [illegible] of silver to the ton and which has been sent to New York to be assayed.

The other company is constructing a coffer dam around a small island in the [illegible] [illegible] called Silver Island. From this [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] fourth miles and ten feet under water and [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] It is their intention to sink a shaft [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] galleries in all directions. This lode of silver ore is said to be exceedingly rich far exceeding the celebrated Comstock lode in Nevada, which yields $[illegible] to the ton, while that of Silver Island yield $[illegible] besides the lead and copper. This Remedy does not simply relieve for a short time but it produces perfect and permanent cures of the worst cases of Chronic Nasal Catarrh and I will pay $500 00 reward for a case that I can not cure. Cold in the head and Catarrhal Headache are cured with a few applications. If you have a discharge from the nose offensive or otherwise stopping up of the nose at times partial loss of the sense of smell taste or hearing eyes watering or weak feel dull [illegible] pressure in the head you may rest assured that you have Catarrh. Thousands annually without manifesting half of the above symptoms, terminate in Consumption and end in the grave [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] I will send my pamphlet on Catarrh to any address free. Dr Sage's Catarrh Remedy is now

SOLD BY MOST DRUGGISTS IN ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD

Price 60 cents. Sent by mail postpaid on receipt of 60 cents or four packages for two dollars. Beware of [counterfeits] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] See that my private Stamp, which is a positive guarantee of genuineness, is upon the outside wrapper. Remember that this private Stamp issued by the United States Government expressly for stamping my medicines has my portrait name and address and the words "U S Certificate of Genuineness" engraved upon it and need not be mistaken. Don't be swindled by travelers and others representing themselves as Dr Sage. I am the only man now living that has the knowledge and right to manufacture the genuine Dr Sage's Catarrh Remedy and I never travel to sell this medicine.

Longfellow's Table Talk

[illegible] Alexander Smith and his [illegible] early [illegible] at Smith's [illegible] knew chiefly [illegible] his Life Drama [illegible] he said was exceedingly [illegible] of the [illegible] that stood among the books on his study table [illegible] of George MacDonald and of Dr John Brown whose Spare Hours [illegible] was much admired [illegible] he is best [illegible] Rab and his Friends [illegible] everywhere

Speaking of international copyright law he said [illegible] such a law passed. You would gain by it even more than we [illegible] The difficulty lies with the lower class of publishers and book sellers here They cry out against it [illegible] houses like Field's are strongly in its favor and have lent all their influence to obtain it My own idea, he added is this A copyright taken out in the one side should hold on the other and whenever it expires in the side on which it is taken out it should expire on the other This I think would cover the whole ground and would avoid all difficulty arising from the different lengths of time for which copyright is granted in the two countries

Of newspapers and journals he said [illegible] are not equal to yours We have no [illegible] classic writing here as you have in the Spectator and Saturday Review But our standard is rising

Speaking of the war he said When the Marquis of Lorne was here I asked him why the English aristocracy were so exultant over the split of our Union The Marquis said it was the instinct of caste He was the first nobleman I met, who perceived or at least confessed the truth I was surprised to hear the confession even from him

He looked at some photographs that I happened to have with me On coming to Cruikshank's he said sadly How changed he [illegible] since I first met him at the door of Dickens' house It makes me feel old to look at [illegible] He admired a picture of Thomas Carlyle taken by Elliott & Fry but was amused beyond measure at the philosopher's appearance in the handsome cloak which the artist had thrown over his shoulders to give effect to the picture and over which the face of Sartor Resartus appeared wearing an expression of ludicrously doleful resignation

Speaking of Hiawatha and the Indians I told Longfellow how much I preferred the Indian of romance to the Indian of reality as my experience of him had gone

He said You see no true specimens now They are all degenerated by contact with white men and by rum I doubt if there is a pure uncontaminated Indian left on this continent.

He said that the correct pronunciation of Hiawatha was Hee wah tha

When I spoke of Evangeline but expressed my doubt if the hexameter would take root in English soil he said I don't know I think it will It is a measure that suits all themes It can fly low like a swallow, and at any moment dart skyward What fine hexameters we have in the Bible— Husbands love your wives, and be not bitter against them And that line— God is gone up with a shout, the Lord with the sound of a trumpet Nothing could be grander or finer than that

"When I wrote Evangeline he added "friends here said 'It is all very well, but you must take an English metre that hexameter will never do!' But my thoughts would run into hexameter However, to please them, I translated some passages into heroic measures, but they agreed, when they heard them together that the hexameter was best. But whatever might be thought of classic measures for new poems Homer and Virgil ought if possible he said to be preserved in their native hexameter Attempts to modernize Homer and put him into English metre, were apt to become absurd It was like putting a statue in crinoline or converting Achilles into a modern gentleman —The American at Home by David Macrae Edinburgh

LUMINOUS FLAMES AND SOUNDS Among the curiosities of physical science is the well known fact that luminous flames are very sensitive to sound, exhibiting different circumstances

An ingenious savant proposes to turn this to practical account, and for this purpose has devised an apparatus, consisting of two upright copper rods, one of which at its upper extremity has a metal band attached at a right angle, and consisting of thin layers silver, and platinum welded together When exposed to the heat the bands expand unequally and bend to one side thereby coming into contact with a platinum point which is attached to the other bar so as to stand at about four tenths of an inch from the bands Both ends are connected with the poles of a small electrical battery, in the circuit of which an electric bell is introduced, in a distant part of the room, and which sounds whenever the circuit is closed A flame is now brought to about ten inches from the metal band, and on removing to a distance of ten or fifteen yards from the flame, and whistling, the flame answers immediately by becoming shorter and broader In this way it comes into contiguity with the metal band, and this curving on one side as it is heated by the flame touches the platinum point closes the current and we hear the distant bell sound each time in answer to the whistle In a similar manner the cry of a child in its cradle by night may be carried to the room of its parents, and, by a somewhat similar arrangement, a thief attempting to open a door with a key, can sound a distant alarm bell if he makes the least noise It is even possible to arrange an apparatus resembling this by means of which in a fog or by night the approach of a boat or vessel can be detected at a great distance by the sounding of a bell in the captain's cabin —Harper's Weekly

A DEMOCRATIC NOTICE —The Ottumwa (Iowa) Gazette says that one Thompson Wright who lives in Pleasant Township Wapello county, where he voted the straight Democratic ticket for twenty four years recently hired a colored man to work on his farm and was warned as follows

mr wright dear sir —as neighbors and friends we will just say that you are a neighbor that we all love and we have [illegible] but [illegible] neighbor hood and we want you to make way with that nigger or we will We don't want a darkey to undermine us in work we will give him till Saturday night to leave us, and then if not you we will see that he goes

"Good by for this time, to Thompson Wright

Pleasant Township gives [illegible] Democratic majority The negro ran away and Wright voted the straight Republican ticket

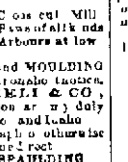
TO THE UNFORTUNATE.
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,



623 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL San Francisco Established 1854, for the treatment of [illegible] Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhea Gleet Stricture Syphilis in all its forms Seminal Weakness Impotency [illegible] Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

Horrible Diseases

How many thousands of persons both male and female are there who are suffering with an eternal [illegible] from the effects of secret indulgences [illegible] from virus absorbed into the system! Look at that pallid emaciated and disfigured face and the broken down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life In that horrid situation they stand and suffer until death closes the scene Let parents, guardians friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these [illegible] maladies—see that they are [illegible] before [illegible] late Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon a physician who has made private diseases his special study for years and who [illegible] cure them without [illegible] mercury or any injurious drugs It is important that those who are afflicted or those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to see [illegible] any pretended doctor who uses all kinds of publishing the names of eminent physicians from [illegible] Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans

Seminal Weakness

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self-abuse This [illegible] or depraved sexual indulgence is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms unless combated by scientific medical measures viz Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes pain in the head ringing in the ears noise like the rustling of leaves and [illegible] uneasiness about the loins weakness of the limbs confused vision blunted intellect loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintance disposition to shun society loss of memory hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face furred tongue fetid breath coughs consumption night sweats monomania and frequently insanity If relief be not obtained should apply immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and entire mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon stating case symptoms length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity to any part of the country with full and plain directions for use for Ten Dollars sent in registered letter or through Wells Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with bogus sworn to certificates dupe the unwary Some of the self styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades Some are [illegible] shoe makers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will find their Medical Institutes in it but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates pretended patient's letters etc Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION
OF
EAST PORTLAND, OREGON.

IS NOW PREPARED TO RECEIVE SUBSCRIPTIONS to their Stock.

Application for ONE HUNDRED [illegible] before the books were opened and a large number [illegible] Shares have been taken [illegible]

The following extracts from the Oregonian [illegible] will convey a good idea of the plan and [illegible] the Association the location of the land [illegible]

RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION.

This association of which [illegible] organization [illegible] an account a few days since, [illegible] purpose of shares. As it is with the [illegible] Portland Homestead Association [illegible] organization of that kind in this city [illegible] well enough to state whether [illegible] the manner in which it is proposed [illegible] operations The purposes of [illegible] Associations are not at all speculative in the ordinary sense of the word They [illegible] for the profits of their investment [illegible] natural advance in the value of the [illegible] quent upon the co-operation of [illegible] —shareholders—and the advantages [illegible] surrounding lands by reason of [illegible] population and demand for room [illegible] still near the city The Riverside [illegible] Association has a fraction over [illegible] twenty acres of land situated just [illegible] Brooklyn on the east side of the river, [illegible] east boundary line being about one mile from the ferry landing at East Portland [illegible] in one strip along the Willamette [illegible] in length and another strip along the Oregon and California railroad, half a mile in length, [illegible] strips being connected near the [illegible] rows of blocks (with a street between [illegible] whole forming a figure not unlike [illegible] It is divided into 74 blocks, 200 feet square [illegible] streets running at right angles [illegible] al lots, along the river front, [illegible] ber 600 worth $60 per share. It will be [illegible] a share thus represents nearly a lot with an undivided interest in the 80 fractional lots. [illegible] [illegible] tional shares are to be sold off at [illegible] for the benefit of the Association [illegible] coming in for the proceeds in [illegible] number of shares held. When [illegible] taken and the Association [illegible] mine to do is the choice of [illegible] will be put up at auction [illegible] bidder the proceeds of such [illegible] the original price of shares or lots, to be divided equally among the whole [illegible] Thus, if a person wishes [illegible] and is willing to pay $100 or [illegible] or less as the case may be [illegible] the lot or block as his individual [illegible] premium being divided among the whole of shareholders It will be seen, [illegible] everything is co-operative, and [illegible] No man can make a dollar [illegible] out also making a dollar for every other [illegible] shareholder There is no [illegible] the property, by some chance, should [illegible] far below the first actual cost. Whether [illegible] liable to happen in the case of this tract of land must be judged by [illegible] but considering the steady and [illegible] advance on real estate in this city and neighborhood and at East Portland and vicinity [illegible] last year or two, it seems hardly [illegible] values to go back.

In the Riverside Association all [illegible] tions seem to have been taken [illegible] monopolies of shares. No person is [illegible] buy more than the number of shares [illegible] three blocks, or twenty-four lots, [illegible] terminating the operations of the [illegible] restricted in the same [illegible] shares may pay down $60 [illegible] exempt them from all [illegible] pay $15 quarterly with an [illegible] share payable with the first [illegible] liable in this latter case to [illegible] other) assessment of $1 per share [illegible] payment of the shares in full, with [illegible] as above The holder [illegible] and his proportion of all [illegible] all sources. No officer of the [illegible] any pay for services [illegible] gets $25 per month [illegible] expenses must be light.

That part of the tract lying [illegible] a high plateau, nearly level, [illegible] above the water There is no part of [illegible] row of blocks but commands a [illegible] Portland and the river for miles [illegible] stream That part of the tract [illegible] railroad is, every foot of it, [illegible] soil and adapted to gardening [illegible] tiful little stream of pure water [illegible] almost the entire length of this [illegible] affording the means of irrigation, and [illegible] ficient to supply pure water to every [illegible] whole tract There is not a waste [illegible] lot in the entire tract. Under [illegible] tages, it would seem impossible that there should be any chance of loss to [illegible] year each shareholder, if he [illegible] perfect title to as many lots as [illegible] represent or he may continue his [illegible] vidual with the Association while the [illegible] tion may exist.—Oregonian

THE RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION.

We have been led to make these [illegible] fact that the subject of making [illegible] skirts of this city and East Portland [illegible] discussed here among all classes [illegible]

Riverside just south of East Portland [illegible] been established The site selected is [illegible] ing a little over a mile south of the ferry [illegible] shaped like the letter H, one side of [illegible] in length borders on the stream [illegible]

From this portion of the [illegible] but a [illegible] above the [illegible] forty or fifty feet above the river, [illegible] of Portland, East Portland [illegible] the Willamette river for several miles [illegible] of [illegible] and is partly covered with [illegible] tract of land just wide enough for two [illegible] with an avenue between them, connects the [illegible] of the H (which has already been [illegible] the east This last tract of land [illegible] valley which is now under a high state [illegible] Through [illegible] of which is clear as crystal. With [illegible] Association proposes to have water conveyed [illegible] portion of the homestead.—Daily Bulletin
